

Next Event – Members Evening

Thursday 16th May, Dollar Golf Club (TBC)

Our annual Members Evening will take place in May. We hope to return to Dollar Golf Club, repeating last year's successful event. As usual we aim to bring you an interesting musical performance (TBC), together with a short AGM. The event is informal and will include a free drink and snacks. Please come along and support us – it's an enjoyable evening and helps to support us for the year ahead.

Music in Dollar

Alastair Savage Trio

Saturday 16th March 2019, 7:30pm
Gibson Hall, Dollar Academy FK14 7DU

Aidan Humphrey (piano) provides a pre-concert supporting performance, from 7:15pm. He will play 'the Tom and Jerry Show' by Hiromi Uehara.

Alastair Savage Trio

Alastair Savage (fiddle) is originally from Ayrshire and has performed traditional and classical music throughout his life. He won both the Ayrshire and National sections of the 'Land O' Burns' Scots fiddle competition in his youth and followed this with classical training at the R.S.A.M.D (now the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland) and at the Royal Academy Of Music in London.

As a traditional fiddle player he has broadcast as soloist on BBC Radio Scotland, Radio 3 and on U.S.A. National Radio. He has been a member of the BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra for the past 22 years with whom he has performed throughout the world.

Joining him is Euan Drysdale (guitar/piano), originally from Bathgate and Iain Crawford (double bass), from Kirkcaldy. They have co-arranged much of the repertoire on Alastair's fiddle albums.

The trio have recorded 4 albums together and Alastair has recorded a fifth of completely solo fiddle music in Crathie Kirk, Royal Deeside, entitled 'Alone With History'.

Euan has an established background in music education being head of performing arts at Chryston High School near Glasgow. His early musical life was as a trumpet player, studying at the R.S.A.M.D and has subsequently performed in a variety of line ups as a composer and arranger in the world of rock and blues music.

Iain is co-principal bass with the BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra and is a member of legendary folk group The Whistlebinkies. The Trio have appeared at many of Scotland's leading music festivals including Celtic Connections, Edinburgh Fringe, Edinburgh Fiddle Festival, St. Magnus Festival Orkney, Glasgow West End Festival, The Loch Shiel Festival in Glenfinnan and their music has been used by BBC Alba for documentary purposes.
