Eilidh Grant Trio

Sunday, 27th October 2024, 3:00pm
Gibson Hall, Dollar Academy FK14 7DU

Eilidh Grant is a renowned and popular Scottish traditional and folk singer.

The Trio, featuring vocalist Eilidh Grant, Fiona Cuthill on fiddle and Stevie Lawrence on acoustic guitar and bouzouki, brings a wide range of musical influences to create a unique sound.

With a love for traditional and contemporary folk alike, underpinned by a passion for the works of Robert Burns, Eilidh's stunning voice beautifully renders both classic folk songs and original material and has made a considerable impression on the British and European folk scenes.

Fiona was classically trained on the violin, but switched to more traditional styles of playing. She is a prolific composer and tutor.

Stevie has played with bands Iron Horse and Red Hot Chili Pipers, alongside a career as session musician, arranger and producer.

Come and Sing

Sunday, 10th November 2024, 2:00pm
Gibson Hall, Dollar Academy FK14 7DU

There's no better way to feel good than to sing! Music in Dollar has organised a day where you can do just that - with some expert tuition from Brian McBride along the way.

Singing doesn't require an instrument - it's you! Everyone can do it, so why not come along and have some fun.

The format will be to learn a few popular songs, then have a vocal workshop to talk about the voice and how it works then have a 'performance' for anyone who wants to come along and listen.

This is a community event, so all are welcome at no cost. Bring along friends and family, anyone who is interested to either sing themselves or listen to others.

Dick is a well loved performer in many formats, including jazz, traditional and classical. A supreme entertainer and familiar here in Dollar, recently with Ali Affleck, and several times with Swing.

Brian is a leading jazz pianist in the UK, and has played with many of the greatest names in jazz. He has played in Dollar many times in different ensembles, latterly with saxophonist Tommy Smith.

As close friends, growing up on opposite sides of the world to the most contrasting of cultures, they have a keen interest in learning and experiencing new things, which lead them to enjoy discovering and sharing under-represented music. Through presenting creative and innovative programmes, they invite their audiences to discover new repertoire from a fresh and exciting perspective.
