

Next Concert – Antonine Trio

Sunday 19th January 2025 @3:00pm, Gibson Hall, Dollar FK14 7DU

After the festive break our first concert of the new year features a trio of piano, French horn and voice. They perform a wide variety of musical styles, ranging from Mozart and Strauss through to new contemporary commissions, to theatre pieces, traditional folk melodies (eg Burns), and even Flanders and Swann!

Formed from Scottish Opera players, the Trio offer something both familiar and also unusual.

“The balance and dynamics were spot-on, with the sweet-toned horn playing a compelling clear voice”. The Herald

Dick Lee & Brian Kellock

Sunday 17th November 2024, 3:00pm
Gibson Hall, Dollar Academy FK14 7DU

Amaris Charles will play piano and clarsach (not at the same time!) in our pre-concert supporting performance, from 2:45pm.

Programme

Dick Lee and Briak Kellock are amongst the foremost contemporary Jazz musicians, in Scotland and worldwide. They have teamed up to showcase The Story of Jazz, featuring a tour through the highlights of that great and vibrant genre. While they are both virtuoso performers and improvisers, they span a wide range of musical styles and moods.

"Fine playing, with some deliciously liquorice-toned clarinet" The Scotsman.

Dick Lee

Over the last 50 years Dick has played and recorded with many artists and groups including Swing, The Psychiatrists, John Renbourn, Hebrides Ensemble, Scottish Chamber Orchestra, Michael Marra Band, Chita Rivera and Ken Mathieson's Classic Jazz Orchestra. He is a supreme entertainer and familiar performer here in Dollar, latterly with Ali Affleck, and several times with Swing.

In 2009 Swing recorded a CD of their concert in Dollar!

Recently he performed in Dollar as part of the Ali Affleck band.

Brian Kellock

Brian Kellock is an acclaimed Scottish jazz pianist known for his distinctive, swinging style which draws on classic jazz influences. For 30 years, he has been the first-call pianist for visiting American jazz musicians, and a favourite choice of leading jazz singers who appreciate his skills as a sensitive accompanist.

A musician who is known for his tender, delicate solo ballads, his barnstorming trio numbers and his mischievous sense of humour, Kellock juggles gigs as leader of his original BK3 (which dates back to the 1980s) with duo concerts and solo outings.

He has played in Dollar several times in different ensembles, such as with saxophonist Tommy Smith.

A recent project is Brian Kellock's Marty Party, which channels the music and spirit of living jazz legend Marty Grosz – the perfect tonic for post-pandemic audiences.

Dick and Brian trace the history of jazz from the earliest days at the start of the 20th century right up to the present day, with anecdotes, information and plenty of great music.

Enjoy!
